BATD, Belgian Association for Tennis Development, created in 1989 represents 4 tennis clubs and 9 tennis schools all over Belgium. BATD organizes for the 4th time the Ten-Pro Global Junior Tour in Belgium.

In order to have your players prepared for the upcoming tournament we have arranged a special training package where everyone can choose the options which suits their needs. Players can choose to join in the camp sessions, book individual sessions or rent a court to play with their BATD coaches. With these three options we will have the majority of your needs covered.

BATD one day camp

The camp runs on Monday 20th of May 2019 and contains 1 full day. Players will have a full day access to the camp. The camp will be focused mainly on preparation for the tournament and will be conducted in groups of max. 4 players per court, by 1 coach per court. The practice will be run by experimented BATD coaches. The times of the Monday's sessions are 9.30-12am, lunch break and 2-4pm followed by a stretching session. The cost for one day camp will be €110 (lunch included) and can be booked in advance via email at alfonso.gonzalez@batd.eu.

Structure of the one day camp:

09:30 - 10:00 warm-up

10:00 - 12:00 tennis, focus on technic and footwork

(€8) slots to a max. of 2 hours per block in order to provide courts to everyone. Booking on the Royal Primerose Club of Brussels site.

BATD: an overview

Belgian Association for Tennis Development exists since 30 years. Today 4 tennis clubs and 9 tennis schools make part of our tennis structure. A special program, Young Team, has been created for our best young players to offer them training and follow-up in competitions in Belgium and abroad.

BATD also supports players who want to embrace a professional career. Steve Darcis, Bart Wuyts, Dominique Monami, Christophe Van Garsse, Christophe and Olivier Rochus, Kirsten Flipkens, Yanina Wickmayer, Kristof Vliegen have been trained at BATD.

Since 5 years, Alfonso Gonzalez has joined our team as tennis director. Former pro tennis player, Davis cup player and coach. Our head coach restructures our clubs and schools, organizes performance tournaments. We hope to accommodate you in the future in our camps, so you get to know him and the BATD coaches' team.
