

Coaching Staff

Alfonso Gonzalez

Former pro tennis player, he was in 1984 Mexican champion and represented his country in Davis cup. He coached professional players such Dominique Monami (WTA 9). He has been sports director in several clubs in Belgium, such as Wezel, La Cure, Molenbos and Heiveld and is actually the BATD sports director.

Frédéric Kohn

He is a Primerose tennis player since 1984. Monitor, level 2, he teaches tennis in Primerose since 1987 and becomes in 1989 school manager and since 2008 also site manager.

Axel Putzeyse

Former BATD Pro Team player. Best ranking B-15/2. BATD coach since 2004. Training: animator and instructor level 1.

Audrey Dujardin

Belgian ranking B-15-2 since 10 years. Gave first tennis lessons at the age of 14 years as a "help" for children. Teaching since 12 years at Primerose and in addition for the AFT. Tennis qualifications: level 1, level 2 and educational expert.

Alexis Wollansky

Tennis teacher since 2004 with level 1 qualification approved by AFT and actually training for level 2. Started teaching at Baudouin, switched to Lambermont and since 2007 at Primerose. He is specialized in mini tennis what consists of detecting young players and train them to bring them quickly to the competition level.

Kris Goossens

Former Belgian professional tennis player. He entered into the ATP's 100 for the first time in 1995, after making the semi-final of the Swedish Open and winning a Challenger event in Ecuador. His run to the semi-finals in Sweden including a win over world number 24 Jonas Björkman. Also that year, he played two Davis Cup singles rubbers for Belgium, against the Russian team. He entered the main draw of seven Grand Slams and once reached the second round at the 1996 French Open, where he defeated Tim Henman. In the following round he lost to Guy Forget, in a five set match.